If you feel your time and talents could enrich our parish family, call the parish office at 419.625.7465 or email: office@stmarysandusky.org.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion - Assists the priests in bringing the Body and Blood of Christ to the assembly. This ministry is performed out of love for the Eucharist and for the people of God. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are expected to dress in a modest manner and perform their ministry reverently. They attend a preparation class, and are scheduled 1-2 times per month, arriving 15 minutes before the start of the liturgy.

From Father Dave's desk.....

To draw closer to Our Lord we must depend on two equally important aspects: confidence and reverence. Saint Bernard of Clairvaux (d.1153) explains that confidence and reverence "are the two arms with which we embrace God." I sure like that image!

We make our way to God with confidence because we can count on God's Word always being truthful. At the same time reverence brings us ever closer to God. Reverence or what sometimes Scripture and Church calls "the holy fear of God" is a great source of strength that helps us carry on in our fight against all that offends God. Confidence in God and reverence for God give us proper perspective and enable us to walk in safety this side of heaven.

At 6'8" my father is an imposing man who in his prime commandeered the room soon after he entered. These days he still holds court, though his style is not so pronounced and magisterial as he has become much more...how shall I say it... grandfatherly and relaxed. More than anyone else, dad taught me the Godly attributes of confidence and reverence. In one way, my life is an attempt – poor as it is - to imitate my dad. His walk across the earthly stage has been marked by major adversities: told he had a mere 60 days to live as a young father with four children, surviving a brutal experimental chemotherapy regiment, beating cancer additional times later in life, enduring unforgiving side-effects from a myriad of surgeries and medicines, receiving a kidney from his youngest sister. Through it all he has harbored an unmistakable confidence and reverence, knowing God is to be found in all the challenges of life as well as its joys. He is not a man who needs to lecture about it. Instead, he simply chooses to embrace God in this manner. And that has made all the difference.

Fr. Dave

S T. JOSEPH - ROLE MODEL FOR TODAY'S FATHERS

Excerpts of article written by Billy Stainsby 1995 - Courtesy of EWTN radio & television.

Husband and Father: Joseph's example of giving himself heart and soul through his life and work to God...defines what being a loving husband and father involves. Pope Leo XIII wrote..."When God gave Joseph as husband to the virgin, he gave him as a companion in life, a witness to her maidenhood, a guardian of her honor."

Love and Protection: To Joseph was entrusted the task of fostering the human growth of Jesus "in wisdom ,age, and grace." Pope John Paul II writes, "We must recognize that Joseph showed Jesus....all the natural love, all the affectionate solicitude that a father's heart can know." At the heart of Joseph's "fatherhood" was the total gift of himself to Mary and Her Son, using his time talents at the service of the Lord.

Silent and Hidden: Two other lessons we learn from the spirituality of Joseph at Nazareth are silence and work. Not one word of Joseph is recorded. Sacred scripture speaks only of what Joseph did - "by their fruits you shall know them." Humble., silent fidelity to Jesus Christ and his Blessed Mother is the mark of Joseph. The hiddenness of Joseph encourages us to seek holiness through the ordinary events of daily life.

Value of Work: Following the footsteps of Joseph helps us to appreciate the personal meaning of work. Pope John Paul II said, "Work cannot be an end in itself, its freedom and its excellence derives, over and above its economic worth, from the value of those for whose sake it is undertaken." When work is undertaken as an expression of love for our family, it fosters personal development and maturity; it promotes health of body and mind and deepens our capacity to love, by drawing the family closer together.

From the Development Office:

As you may know, earlier this year Sandusky Central Catholic School and the entire Sandusky Catholic community lost a very dear and loyal member when Mary Ann Sloan lost her valiant battle with cancer. In her memory, Sandusky Central Catholic School has established the Mary Ann Sloan Tuition Assistance and Student Sponsorship Endowment Program to continue the important work she dedicated 11 years of her life to.

A portion of the money raised will be applied directly to the tuition of students whose families are facing financial difficulties and need help meeting their tuition obligation. It will also help to provide mid-year tuition support, if needed, to help current students continue their education at SCCS.

The remaining portion will be placed into the SCCS Education Foundation endowment fund. This endowment will provide student sponsorships in perpetuity, making it possible for families who truly desire an SCCS education to receive one.
