Insight from Fr. Flood

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Family Perspective - We pay a dear price trying to possess the biggest, best, fastest and latest. Satisfaction will never be spelled with LETTERS (SUV, DVD, IRA, and IPOD) but rather by the WORD of God in today's gospel: "Be on your guard against all greed." Happiness comes from those we love and who love us and not from gadgets because we are more than consumers.

Banns I - Allyson Seiler and Adam Kowaleski

Banns II - Alaina Schirg and Jeremy Blakely

Congratulations to members of St. Mary's Classes of 1955, 1965, and 1985 who are celebrating their respective class reunions at this weekend's Masses. Please remember the living and deceased members of these classes in your prayers.

Modern NFP helps couples in "speaking" the language of love that God planned for our human bodies. Modern NFP is more than 99% effective in postponing pregnancies, with none of the chemicals or cost of contraceptives. Engaged and married couples can find out more about Natural Family Planning and register for classes at locations across the county at www.ccli.org, the website of the Couple to Couple League. Or call local NFP Teaching Couples Roger and Pat Frey 419.433.6352 or Paul and Monica Depinet 419.660.0534.

From Father Dave's desk.....

Our life on earth is short. Even my Grandma Glass who is approaching 101 years of age only will have had a brief moment in the course of human history when she passes into eternal life.

The saints sought to keep their mortality before them. While some people might find it morbid to think about their end, doing so inspires us to live more fully. When we live with our end in mind, we stand to discover a more meaningful and memorable passing through the world of time. The most important things really become most important.

Recall a special place that you knew you were at for the last time. Once aware of this, time is no longer wasted there. Instead, everything possible is done to take it all in before you had to leave.

In today's Gospel the Lord Jesus uses a parable to speak in no uncertain terms about the brevity of our human lives. In the parable, God declares: "You fool! This night your life will be demanded of you" (Luke 12:20). Maybe we still think of death in terms of something remote as if we will live forever on earth. However, listen carefully to Our Lord whose words are directed to every one of us. Friends, our days are numbered. We always are in the hands of God. Within a few years, and maybe even not that many, we will find ourselves face to face with Him.

Meditating on our own end can motivate us to use the time that remains better. It can help us to take advantage of our circumstances in order to make reparation for sins and to become detached from earthly goods. One day, like any other day, will be our last day on earth. Today, thousands of people have died or will die in the most varied of circumstances. Many of these people may have been unaware that their time was up and that they no longer would have time left to improve things and make amends. Some died with their hearts immersed in concerns having little or nothing to do with eternal life. Others died who have been involved in exactly the same activities but have kept their sights on God. It is these latter people who have come into possession of the marvelous "treasures in heaven where neither moth nor decay destroys" (Matthew 6:20).

At the moment of death, the state of the soul is fixed forever. Afterwards it is impossible to change. The destiny which awaits us is the consequence of our behavior on earth. This is the reason why Our Lord frequently warns us to be vigilant and to stay awake!

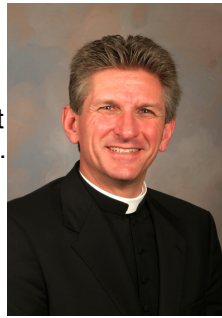

Death is not the end of existence, but the beginning of a new life. Christians cannot ignore or minimize the importance of our mortal existence since it is the very means by which we prepare for our eternal life with God in Heaven. If we wish to yield a rich harvest before God we have to sanctify our ordinary life and use wisely, generously and gratefully the time we have received as God's gift. This will be our way to Heaven.

Sandusky Life Teen
"Love consumes us only in the measure of our self-surrender."
- St. Therese of Lisieux

Tuesday, August 3rd: Join in for prayer and faith sharing in our new Upper Room Youth Center from 7:00-9:00pm at Holy Angels Church.

Wednesday, August 4th: We will be having a BBQ at Holy Angels Church. All high school and college students are welcome to join us, as we spend a little time with our college students before they embark on a new semester of learning!

STEBENVILLE MID-AMERICA UPDATE: Sandusky Life Teen returned from our Steubenville Mid-America trip on July 19th. I was honored to be our teen's youth minister this weekend. In the words of one of the songs played during the weekend "I see a generation rising up to take their place, with selfless faith, with selfless faith." The teenagers of Sandusky, are stepping up and growing in their faith. Stay tuned at your Sunday Masses to hear more about our Mid-America trip and Life Teen.

UPPER ROOM UPDATE: Throughout this summer Sandusky Life Teen has transformed the old library at Holy Angels into a teen center. This space was created to give our Catholic teenagers a safe space to gather in prayer and to have fun. We have made purchases to get the center started, but we are looking for individuals to help us purchase a round table and chairs along with a television, lamps, chairs, bar stools and decorations. We will be placing a wish list in next week's bulletin, please stay tuned or contact Brittany for more information. Thank you for keeping our teenagers in your prayers!
